In none of the official statements issued from the White House since his return to Washington has there been any statement of the diagnosis made by the specialists called to the bedside of the president. It is this suppression of the facts that accounts for the rumors concerning the president's physical and mental condition that have been flying thick and fast for the last ten days.

Dr. Grayson again declined either to affirm or deny the authenticity of Senator Moses' statement.

ADMIRAL WAS A TRUE SPORT

(Correspondence of Associated Press) LONDON, Sept. 17.—At about the age of 60, Admiral Lord Beresford, whose sudden death England is still mourning, gave up the use of intoxicating drinks. "Since I have given up wine, spirits and beer," he said some time afterward, "I find I can do as much work or more, physically and mentally, than I could do when I was 30. I laugh at the 'downs' of life equally with the 'ups' and always feel fit."

"Our Charlie," as Britishers affectionately referred to their sea hero, wasn't a prohibitionist, however. He struck the keynote of his attitude toward prohibition when, at the age of 25, he made his maiden speech in the house of commons, quoting the refrain:

"Confound their eyes
If ever they tries
To rob a poor man of his beer."

Asked when a boy what he would like to be, he said he wanted to be an admiral "like Nelson." So at 13 he entered the navy as a cadet.

He was an all-round sportsman and an excellent boxer. Once when a young man he had an argument with a cabman. "I'll fight you for the fare," his lordship proposed. "Done," said the cabby, climbing down with alacrity from his perch. Lord Beresford was severely handled. It developed that the cabby was a former middleweight champion.

Two years ago, at a luncheon, Lord Beresford exclaimed, "Here's a pretty state of affairs." He pointed to an inscription on the under side of his plate which read, "Factory, Wer-
